Conductor: Richard Decker Organist: Francesca Massey

Refreshments: Tea, coffee, squash and cake will be provided between the rehearsal and performance (included in ticket price)
You are encouraged to stay for wine/fruit juice (available at a nominal charge) and light refreshments after the performance to socialise with DCS members and others

Cost: Singers: £15 in advance or £16 at the door
(students/under 18 free of charge in advance or £4 at the door)
Concert only: £5 in advance or £5 at the door
(students/under 18 free of charge in advance or £3 at the door)

Music: When booking please indicate whether you wish to hire a copy of the two scores for the afternoon. Both will be available for a total charge of £6, payable at the event, of which £5 will be refunded in cash when the music is returned on the day
Alternatively, you can bring your own copies - we will be using the Oxford University Press edition of the Cantique de Jean Racine (with the English translation), and the SATB Novello edition (with piano accompaniment by Desmond Ratcliffe) of the Requiem

Parking: Parking is available in the surrounding roads

Access: The main door to the church has no steps; depending on numbers, singers may be on a raised area up one step, but we will make every effort to accommodate those with mobility difficulties
Refreshments after the rehearsal will be at the rear of the church
Accessible toilets are available

Dress code: No specific dress code

We would love to fill the church and look forward to seeing as many of you as possible. In the meantime, should you have any questions please contact our Secretary Paul Grimmer by phone or text message on 0794 832 4862 or by email at secretary@dartfordchoral.org.uk
